May 2023

Set out below is a list of public authorities designated for the purposes of Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (the Act), as at April 2022. Such designated public authorities are subject to the statutory duties set out in Section 75 (1) and (2) of the Act to have

- due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity in relation to the nine equality categories¹ and
- to have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief; political opinion; and racial group.

Unless otherwise exempt, designated public authorities will have an equality scheme, approved by the Equality Commission for Northern Ireland, showing how they propose to fulfil the duties imposed by Section 75 in relation to their relevant functions.

A scheme shall state, in particular, the authority's arrangements:

- (a) for assessing its compliance with the duties under section 75 and for consulting on matters to which a duty under that section is likely to be relevant (including details of the persons to be consulted);
- (b) for assessing and consulting on the likely impact of policies adopted or proposed to be adopted by the authority on the promotion of equality of opportunity;
- (c) for monitoring any adverse impact of policies adopted by the authority on the promotion of equality of opportunity;
- (d) for publishing the results of such assessments as are mentioned in paragraph (b) and such monitoring as is mentioned in paragraph (c);
- (e) for training staff;
- (f) for ensuring, and assessing, public access to information and to services provided by the authority.

A scheme shall:

- (a) conform to any guidelines as to form or content which are issued by the Commission with the approval of the Secretary of State;
- (b) specify a timetable for measures proposed in the scheme; and
- (c) include details of how it will be published.

Copies of equality schemes are available from each public authority.
